[REDACTED] 1. Since 15 May 1951, 60 guards have been quartered in a Schoenefeld inn, managed by Kuehn (fmu). Half of the EM came from Schoenefeld airfield and the other half from Waltersdorf. Truck [REDACTED] was used for transporting the EM.

2. The following buildings at Schoenefeld airfield were occupied: Building No 9 by about 30 officers, building No 53 by about 70 officers, and building No 55 by about 40 officers and civilians equal in rank to the officers. * The commander has been billeted in building No 50 since 1 April 1951.

3. On 1 June, 13 fluorescent lamps fitted on masts about 8 meters high and spaced 100 meters apart were counted in the southwestern flying lane. A hut, about 2 meters square, which was occupied by a civilian guard, was seen between the third and fourth lamp. A transformer station 3.5 meters square was located between the eighth and ninth lamp. The beacon house was a few meters behind the last lamp. The signal lamp was fitted on a mast about 8 meters high, a few meters from the beacon installation.

[REDACTED] 4. At 10 a.m. on 4 June, five twin-engine DC-3 transports and one biplane were parked in the eastern section of the airfield. A Ju-52 which came from the northeast landed at the field at 10:30 a.m. and taxied to the civilian airport in the northern section of the field. Cloud base was about 300 to 500 meters and visibility 5 km. The plane had the Bulgarian national colors, white-green-red, painted on its rudder assembly and a letter on its fuselage which could not be identified. A DC-3 with [REDACTED]
